It is of good ale to you I'll sing And to good ale I'll always cling. I you that helps me with my work And from a task I'll nev-er shirk While like my mug filled to the brim And I'll drink all you'd like to bring. O good I can get a good home brew, And better than one pint I like two.

ale, thou art my darling Thou art my joy, both night and mor - ning. It is love you in the ear-ly morn I love you in daylight, dark, or dawn, And when I'm weary, worn, or spent, I'll turn the tap and ease the vent. O good

The musical score is written for a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 3/2. The score is divided into systems, each starting with a measure number (6, 12, 17, 21, 25, 29). Chords are indicated above the treble staff. The lyrics are written below the treble staff, with some lines split between the two staves. The bass staff contains a simplified bass line with colored squares (blue, green, red, purple) indicating fingerings or accents. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

33 ale, thou art my darling Thou art my joy, both night and mor - ning. It is

37 you that makes my friends my foes, It is you that makes me wear old clothes, But 41 since you come so near my nose, It's up you comes and down you goes.

51 You have

57 caused me debts that I've often swore I never would drink strong ale no more But 61 you for all that I'll for - give And I'll drink strong ale as long as I live.
